

Harlaxton 2017

Church and City in the Middle Ages: In Honour of Clive Burgess

Monday 17th July

- 1.00 Registration
- 2.15 Welcome: Gerald Seaman (Principal of Harlaxton College) and David Harry (Secretary of the Symposium)
- 2.30-3.30 Peter Fleming (University of the West of England): Burgess and the Burgesses: Medieval Bristol and its historians
- Chair: David Harry
- 3.30 Tea/coffee
- 4.15-6.00 Music and Liturgy in the City
- Magnus Williamson (University of Newcastle): From Map to App: Revisiting the Soundscape of the Medieval Parish
- Amy Appleford (Boston University): Singing the Dirige: Music and Ascetic Practice in the Late Medieval City
- Nigel Morgan (University of Cambridge): The Diocese of London and the Sarum Calendar in the Fifteenth Century
- Chair: Nicholas Orme
- 6.00 Dinner
- 8.00 Compline according to the Use of Sarum, St Mary and St Peter's church, Harlaxton village
- 9.00 Bar

Tuesday 18th July

- 7.00 Breakfast
- 9.00-10.45 The Religious Orders and the City
- Nick Holder (University of Exeter): How to Create an Urban Monastery in the Thirteenth Century: Land, Money and Purpose

Martin Heale (University of Liverpool): The Religious Orders and Urban Guilds

Julian Luxford (University of St Andrews): Sir Robert Reade, St Catherine and the London Charterhouse

Chair: John McEwan

10.45 Tea/coffee

11.15-12.30 The Urban Friars

Elizabeth New (Aberystwyth University): Speaking from the Art: a Reconsideration of Mendicant Seals in Medieval England

James Clark (University of Exeter): Small Town Friars in the Late Middle Ages

Chair: David Green

12.30 Lunch

1.45-2.45 Sandy Heslop (University of East Anglia): Size Matters: Norwich Churches and their Parishioners

Chair: Jenny Stratford

2.45 – 3.00 Pause

3.00-4.15 The Civic Parish and Administration

Justin Colson (University of Essex): The Parish and Civic Politics: Reassessing Office Holding and the Cursus Honourum

Robert Swanson (University of Birmingham): Town and Gown, Nave and Chancel: Parish and Parochialism in Late Medieval Oxford

Chair: Nigel Ramsay

4.15 Tea/coffee

5.00-6.15 Beyond the City

Gabriel Byng (University of Cambridge): Recreating a Parish Polity: the Masters, the Stores and the Parish Church of Chagford, Devon

Claire Daunton (University of Cambridge): 'Pious Provision': What did it mean in fifteenth-century Lynn?

Chair: Anne Sutton

6.15 Dinner

7.30 Postgraduate Poster Display and Bar

Wednesday 19th July

7.00 Breakfast

9.00-10.15 Late Medieval Bristol

Jon Cannon (University of Bristol): St Mary Redcliffe: Patronage and Architecture at Bristol's 'great church' parish church.

James Lee (University of the West of England): 'To have the keepyng of the keyes': Power and Authority in Late Medieval Bristol

Chair: Martha Carlin

10.15 Tea/coffee

11.00-12.45 Commemoration and Worship

Anna Eavis (English Heritage): Urbs in rure: A Metropolitan Elite at Holy Trinity, Long Melford, Suffolk

John Goodall (Country Life): The 'Cage' Chantry: A Fond Thing Vainly Invented

David Lepine (Independent scholar), Nunc vermibus eso: Bishop Fleming's Chantry in Lincoln Cathedral

Chair: Christian Steer

1.30 Leave for the Bishop's Palace Lincoln (picnic lunch)
Rosemary Hayes (University of York), Bishop William Alnwick (1436-1449) and the Bishops' Palace, Lincoln

Tea/coffee at the Lincoln Cathedral Centre

5.00 Return to Harlaxton

7.00 Reception and book launch, Saints and Cults in Medieval England

7.30 Conference dinner
Christian Steer (University of York): Clive Burgess: An Appreciation

Thursday 20th July

7.00 Breakfast

9.15-10.15 Vincent Gillespie (University of Oxford): The Permeable Cloister? Charterhouses, Contemplation and Urban Piety in Later Medieval England

Chair: Sue Powell

10.15 Tea/coffee

11.00-12.45 Late Medieval London

Katherine French (University of Michigan): The Poor and the Parish: The Problem of Participation in Late Medieval London

Julia Boffey (Queen Mary University of London): The Remorse of Conscience: The London Circulation and Reception of William Lichfield's 'Complaint of God'.

Caroline Barron (Royal Holloway University of London): A Virtual London Parish: the Precinct of St Bartholomew's Hospital in the Fifteenth Century.

Chair: Matthew Davies

12.45 Closing remarks (David Harry), lunch and depart